

Retention Playbook

PROMOTIONAL SUNSET PLAN

SEGMENT

Mature customers with more than 20 previous purchases.

WHY THIS SEGMENT?

- They have the lowest promotional dependency (41%), indicating that a majority of purchases occur without promotions.
- They also demonstrate strong repeat purchasing behavior with an average of 25.82 previous purchases.

TRIGGER BEHAVIOR

- Mature customers who have made more than 20 previous purchases become eligible for reduced promotional offers.

ROLLOUT PLAN

PHASE	PILOT	EXPANSION	SUNSET
TIMELINE	Month 1	Month 2	Month 3
ACTION	Reduce discount frequency by 25% for Mature customers with >20 previous purchases.	Offer discounts only during major campaigns or festivals.	Remove routine discounts for this segment while retaining exceptional promotional events if necessary.

METRICS TO TRACK

REPEAT PURCHASE RATE

AVERAGE SPEND

REVENUE FROM MATURE CUSTOMER

PROMO DEPENDENCY %

IDEAL CUSTOMER PROFILE

GENDER

Male customers generate the highest revenue (~$13k vs ~$6k for females).

AGE GROUP

Mature customers (40+ Age) generate the highest overall revenue.

CATEGORY

Within Mature customers, Clothing contributes the highest revenue (~$59k).

LOYALTY

Mature customers average 25.69 previous purchases, indicating repeat buying.

PROMO DEPENDENCY

Mature customers have 41% promo dependency, which is relatively low as compared to adults and young adults.